Edition Printed: September 2009

On behalf of the Health and Safety Council of Strafford County (HSCSC), we are pleased to present the Strafford County Emergency Preparedness Resource Directory.

The HSCSC is one of 13 regional networks working on the public health and emergency preparedness needs of municipalities contained within their region. This guide is part of a grant requirement to assist local municipalities and organizations prepare for emergencies. The goal of this guide is to provide a list of resources that may be of service during an emergency. Ideally, a relationship and/or a contractual memorandum of understanding will be established before an emergency such as Avian Flu with the businesses or organizations. Please note: the inclusion of resources in this guide does not imply a contractual obligation for services during an emergency, but rather a resource that may be called upon.

The guide has been formatted for insertion into your local emergency operations plan as an appendix or it can be a free standing document. This “snapshot” of local resources will be revised yearly so your feedback is welcome as we continue to work on improving local public health preparedness.

If you have questions, comments, or would like more information about the public health networks, our goals, or to join our coalitions, please feel free to contact them at:
